Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy

Last Reviewed: September 2026

Next Review Due: September 2027. This policy will be reviewed annually or sooner if legislation changes

Policy Statement

Supply & Demand Consultancy Ltd is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and young people and staff. We believe that:

- The welfare of children is paramount.
- All children, regardless of age, disability, gender, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse.
- Working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers, and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.
- Children with special educational needs and disabilities SEND and those with additional vulnerabilities, may face more challenges and barriers to disclosing concerns.

Purpose of This Policy

This policy aims to:

- Protect children and young people who receive services from Supply & Demand Consultancy Ltd
- Provide staff and partners with clear guidance on how to identify and respond to concerns about child abuse or neglect.

Legal Framework

This policy has been developed in accordance with the principles of Keeping Children Safe in Education 2026, The Children Act 2004, the Prevent Duty 2023, Alternative Provision Guidance 2026, Working Together to Safeguard Children 2026, The Data Protection Act 2018/ GDPR and the Children missing Education statutory guidance.

Definitions

- Safeguarding: Protecting children from maltreatment, preventing impairment of their health or development, ensuring safe and effective care, and enabling them to grow up in a safe environment.
- Child Protection: Specific actions taken to protect children who are suffering, or at risk of suffering, significant harm.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Supply & Demand Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL):
 - Charlotte Atkins DSL email: charlotte.a@supply-demand.co.uk Tel: 020 8466 7946
 - Jordan Rhodes DDSL email: jordan@supply-demand.co.uk Tel 02084667946
- The DSL is the main contact responsible for managing safeguarding concerns, providing advice and support, liaising organisations and the Local Authority Designated Officer LADO when appropriate, and ensuring records are kept.
- All Teachers and Staff must:
 - Read and understand this policy.
 - Attend safeguarding training annually.
 - Report any concerns or disclosures immediately to the DSL.

Recognizing Signs of Abuse

Abuse may take the form of:

- Physical abuse
- Emotional abuse
- Sexual abuse and exploitation
- Neglect

Staff working with or supporting children should be alert to the potential indicators of abuse, neglect and exploitation

- Unexplained injuries
- Changes in behaviour or mood
- Becoming withdrawn
- Becoming uncharacteristically aggressive
- Poor bond or relationship with a parent
- Running away or going missing
- Knowledge of adult issues inappropriate for their age
- Always choosing to wear clothes with cover their body

Reporting concerns and Disclosures

If a child discloses abuse

- Listen carefully and stay calm.
- Do not promise confidentiality—explain you may need to share what they say.
- Allow the child to continue at their pace
- Reassure the child that they have done the right thing telling you.
- Record the disclosure exactly what the child says using their words. Note the date time and any names mentioned, ensure the record is signed and dated.
- Do not ask leading questions, ask questions for clarification only.
- Report the disclosure to the DSL immediately. If the DSL is unavailable contact the Local Authority safeguarding team

Low level Concerns

Concerns or allegations can relate to behaviour inside or outside work and do not have to directly involve children. All concerns about Supply & Demand staff will be recorded and reviewed by the DSL and acted upon appropriately.

Allegations against Supply & Demand Staff

Any allegations against a member of staff that has harmed a child or may have harmed a child, must be reported immediately to the DSL. The DSL will notify the LADO within 24 hours ensuring all appropriate action is taken. If the allegation is against the DSL, the whistleblowing policy must be followed and the concern reported to LADO or the commissioning school or Local Authority.

Supply & Demand will ensure that the member of staff about whom there are concerns, will be treated fairly and honestly and provide support during any investigation.

Complaints. Anti-Bullying and Whistleblowing

Supply & Demand has clear policies and procedures on complaints, anti-bullying and whistleblowing. All staff must be familiar with these policies and procedures. If staff feel their safeguarding concerns are not addressed, they may contact LADO or the NSPCC whistleblowing helpline for advice.

Safer Recruitment

Supply & Demand ensures they follow the safer recruitment procedures in line with KCSIE 2025 this includes:
