Policy

Supply & Demand Consultancy Ltd is committed to the highest standards of honesty, openness, and accountability. We encourage all staff, to report any concerns about wrongdoing, malpractice, or risks to children's safety in good faith. This policy provides a framework for raising such concerns and ensures they are handled fairly, confidentially, and without fear of victimisation. This policy links to the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998.

Purpose

We want all staff to

- Encourage individuals to report concerns about wrongdoing at the earliest opportunity.
- Ensure that concerns are investigated promptly and effectively.
- Protect whistleblowers from detrimental treatment or victimisation.
- Promote a culture of transparency and integrity within Supply & Demand.

Scope

This policy applies all staff, teachers and contractors. It covers concerns about legal obligations or statutory duties, malpractice, health and safety, poor safeguarding, abuse or risks to children and young people, illegal activities, deliberate concealment of any stated.
